

Principals' conclave organized

GUWAHATI, Aug 13: In a significant initiative aiming to promote financial literacy in the North East region, the Indian Institute of Bank Management (IIBM) in collaboration with the National Centre for Financial Education (NCFE) organized a day-long Principals' conclave on Monday here.

The event was held on the theme 'Integration of Financial Education in School Curriculum' and it brought together over 50 principals from the leading schools of the northeastern region, stated a press release.

The conclave was inaugurated with addresses from distinguished dignitaries, including Sushmita Phukan, Regional Director for northeastern States at the Reserve Bank of India (RBI); Eugene Emmanuel Karthak, Director of IIBM; Alok Chandra Jena, CEO of NCFE and Loken Das, Chief General Manager of NABARD, Guwahati, the release added.

---