WHY THIS PROGRAMME?

Maintaining positive attitude in one's life at work is desirable. Many of us, in zeal to cope with the speed of competition, modernization, liberalization and new economic environment, tend to overlook this important aspect. Persons with positive attitude will be motivated to do things differently and will work more efficiently. They will approach work with greater freshness; perceive things with more strength for utilizing external and internal resources. Likewise both self-motivation and motivating subordinates is equally important for excellence at work place. The Indian Institute of Bank Management, Guwahati is organizing a four day programme from April 17-20, 2018 on developing the art of self-motivation and positive attitude for excellence at work.
